

LIABILITY RELEASE and AGREEMENT NOT TO SUE FOR INJURIES

Aikijuku Dojo LLC (Aikijuku Dojo), its members, instructors, guest instructors, or anyone else, are unwilling to have people practice Aikido at Aikijuku Dojo if its members, staff or visiting instructors might be sued for injuries that may happen to anyone while practicing Aikido or for injuries that could occur, for any reason, anywhere on the premises or on the way to or from training.

Therefore, we ask, in consideration in exchange for allowing you to practice at Aikijuku Dojo and other good and valuable consideration, the legal sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged as dated below, that you sign this document and by doing so give up any rights you may have to sue or hold the dojo, its members, instructors or guest instructors, or anyone else, liable for any injuries which may occur to you caused by negligence or any other reason, while anywhere on the center premises, including while on the mat and including while on the way to or from the dojo.

I, (name) _____, the undersigned, have carefully read this document and understand it and in consideration and exchange for practicing Aikido and in further consideration as more fully stated above, give up any rights I may have to sue or hold liable Aikijuku Dojo LLC, its staff or guests instructors, for any injuries that may occur to me while practicing Aikido while on the premises or while going to or from the training.

I understand that Aikido is an educational system. For the benefit of the training and safety of myself and other participants, I agree to conduct myself in a manner consistent with the rules of dojo etiquette and common sense safety observation.

I also hereby release Aikijuku Dojo, LLC, and its agents, representatives, and assigns, from any responsibility or liability for any damages arising from personal injuries or property damage or loss relating to my participation, or the use or operation of equipment related to the activities of said organization.
